As a part of Inclusive centre, Anti – Human Trafficking Club organized an awareness programme to students on 17.11.2022. The club convener Dr.V.SANDHYA invited guests, Principal, B.Raghunatha Reddy, Chief Guest of the day Smt.K.L.S.Gayathri, Sub-Inspector of Police, Kaikaluru Town P.S, Vice-principal Sri. D.Uday Prakash Rao, Dr.S.D.V.Satyanarayana, Physical Director, IQAC Coordinator, R. Jala Babu, members of the club Smt,Y,Gnanaprasunamba, HOD, Botany, Smt. Gousia Sultana Choudri, HOD Mathematics and other staff members. She gave a brief introduction on Inclusive center and the objectives of the club.

- To create Awareness among the victims of trafficking of their human rights and to empower them through programs.
- To raise awareness about human trafficking and informing about the risks and consequences of work abroad and their labor/Human rights.
- To undertake Research and provide Consultations.
- To undertake Sensitization and Training Programs (STP) for organizations, non-profits, International, non-government organizations to further the anti-trafficking work.

Principal delivered the inaugural address and other speakers enlightened the students with their views on Human Trafficking.

Chief Guest Smt.K.L.S.Gayathri enlightened the government prosecuted sex trafficking crimes under other laws like the Protection of Children from Sexual Offenses

Act (POCSO) and the Immoral Traffic Prevention Act (ITPA), which criminalized various offenses relating to commercial sexual exploitation. She enlightened students about

- Knowing the signs and red flags of trafficking.
- Calling the national human trafficking hotline if you have concerns about a potential trafficking situation.
- Contacting lawmakers about strengthening enforcement measures and laws (like the Trafficking Victims Protection Act).
- Volunteer with or donate to an anti-trafficking organization.
- Stay informed and talk about the issue with friends, family and others.
- Host an awareness event or community forum. And she finally concluded that the best approach is to prevent human trafficking before it start.

“The members of the club will actively associate with police and labour departments during raid and rescue operations and extend assistance to victims. They will also pass on information about potential human trafficking to enforcement agencies,” said Smt, Y, Gnanaprasunamba, HOD, Botany. Finally the program was ended with a vote of thanks by Smt. Gousia Sultana Choudri, HOD Mathematics.
